

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary group of elementary school students who have attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Girl Scouts of the USA program; and

Whereas, the members of Brownie Troop #3314 in Overland Park, Kansas, will travel by train to Warrensburg, Missouri, on April 5, 2003, to fulfill their "Finding Your Way" Tri-It requirement necessary for them to bridge from Brownies to Junior Girl Scouts in Spring of 2003; and

Whereas, founded by visionary Juliette Gordon Low in Savannah, Georgia, in 1912, the Girl Scouts of the USA program is an informal educational organization that reflects the interests and needs of participating girls, provides girls with a variety of experiences, offers age-appropriate activities at each age level, encourages a progression of skill development and responsibility through the different age levels, and promotes the development of leadership and decision-making skills; and

Whereas, Brownie Troop #3314 will be greeted at the Warrensburg train station by members of Junior Girl Scout Troop #1841 from Warrensburg, who will recognize them by their matching pink tie-dye shirts; and

Whereas, Junior Girl Scout Troop #1841 will provide a trail and treasure hunt for Brownie Troop #3314 to follow through downtown Warrensburg to the Girl Scout Little House, where they will spend the night; and

Whereas, Brownie Troop #3314 is part of the Mid-Continent Girl Scout Council and consists of sixteen girls, all of whom will make the trip to Warrensburg along with eleven mothers and Troop Leader Ann Schuller:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending a most hearty welcome to Troop Leader Ann Schuller and to the members of Brownie Troop #3314 from Oak Park Elementary School in Overland Park, Kansas, as they visit the City of Warrensburg and the Show-Me State on April 5, 2003; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Brownie Troop #3314 in Overland Park, Kansas.
